

Lost Sheep

demo url <http://content.uclick.com/content/lost.html>

Welcome to the charmingly quirky world of George, a thoughtful sheep who one day dared abandon his flock and set out to explore the world. Joined by Joe, a genial beret-wearing gent, and Frank, an aptly-named parrot they liberated from a pet shop, George and friends form a strikingly unlikely and humorously compatible household filled with bonhomie, camaraderie and museful shenanigans – plus occasional visits from Joe's charming girlfriend Liz, who fortunately works in a bakery. Not since "The Wizard of Oz" has fate brought together such a peculiar and sweetly puzzling crew. Please join them on their highly entertaining journey through life.

About the Creator:

Dan Thompson started his professional career doing character design and animation cleanup for a small animation studio, then moved into freelance cartoon illustration and gag cartooning. A member of the National Cartoonist Society, he writes and draws cartoons for magazines, Web sites and syndication. He began LOST SHEEP in the summer of 2003 on uclick's Comics Sherpa incubator Web site. The feature is now syndicated by uclick. Dan lives with his wife Kari and their Scottish Terrier in western Connecticut.
